WEAR YOUR LOVE FOR AMERICA ON YOUR SLEEVE JULY 4th, GET 50% OFF AT BILLIE SWAMP SAFARI

BIG CYPRESS SEMINOLE RESERVATION, FL. (June 10, 2010) – If you show your patriotism by wearing an American flag on July 4th, Billie Swamp Safari on the Big Cypress Seminole Reservation in the Florida Everglades will give you a discount of 50 percent off the regular ticket price of an Airboat Ride, a Swamp Buggy Eco-Tour, a Snake & Alligator Show, or Swamp Critter Show.

“It can be an American flag worn as a pin, a patch, a shirt, a hat or anything,” said Ed Woods, director of Billie Swamp Safari. The promotional offer cannot be combined with any other offer and is good for July 4, 2010 only.

At Billie Swamp Safari you can “escape the crowds and noise!” Experience the wonders of the Florida Everglades as you visit land that has been preserved for your enjoyment. The Seminoles treat the land with reverence and work hard to preserve the natural environment. As a result, the wonders of the Florida Everglades continue to bring joy to visitors from around the world.

A true Everglades experience, Swamp Buggy Eco-tours and Airboat Rides are offered daily. Visitors can travel high above Florida’s untamed Everglades on a swamp buggy or glide effortlessly along a trail on an airboat. Witness first-hand the ecosystem of a land on the edge of civilization and the solitary beauty of tropical hardwood hammocks, cypress domes and abundant flora and fauna. Marvel at native and exotic wildlife from the rare Florida panther to alligators and crocodiles, deer, antelope, bison, snakes, southern razorback hogs and many species of birds.

The Snake & Alligator Show and the Swamp Critter Show are also scheduled daily. They combine entertainment and education and feature many animals and reptiles on an up-close and personal level.

The Big Cypress Seminole Reservation is located midway between Fort Lauderdale and Naples off I-75 (Alligator Alley.) Take I-75 to exit 49, then drive north 19 miles. For further information, please call 800/GO-SAFARI or 863/983-6101. Visit us online at www.billieswampsafari.travel.
